

in Matthew 11 verse 28 said come unto me, in Matthew 4:17, he said repent. Jesus has paid the price for all your rebellion and fight against God, he died for you on the cross, he is calling you and all you need to do is to run to him and tell God you are very sorry for all your rebellion against him and that he should pardon and forgive you. When you do, God will immediately forgive you and wash all your sins away and you will escape his judgment both now and in the world to come, he will not allow you to perish in eternal punishment. Do that repentance now.

VOWED TO WIPE OUT THE BIBLE BUT SOMETHING HAPPENED TO
HIS HOUSE
(A True Life Story)

Have you ever seen a man boast about what he would do? What about you, have you ever boasted about something you intended to do and that you have made up your mind and feel nothing can stop you?

Each day that passes you see men boast about one thing or the other. They tell you categorically that is what they plan to carry out and nothing can stop them. In all their boasting they forgot that their life is not in their hands. They will not adhere to what the bible said in James 4:13-14, that man's life is like a vapour that appears now then later vanishes away.

There is the true story of a man in the Old Soviet Union that was against Christ and the church and anything that has to do with the bible or Christianity. He hated God and the bible so much that he planned to wipe the bible out of circulation from this world, he does not want to see the bible in existence, and he boasted he will wipe the bible out of circulation. He was ferocious in that course with all his might.

However, something happened after his death, the man eventually find time to die for he is a mere mortal man. After his death, his house became a place where bible was produced and from there circulated to other places. Very painfully he never found the time to repent but in his fight and rebellion against God his creator he died.

There are some reading this now and they are fighting and rebelling against God thinking what can the God of the Christians do? They are fighting the church, as you read this, is there any way you have vowed to destroy Christianity or the church of God? Jesus told Saul (Paul) in Acts chapter 9, that he cannot kick his feet against the prick, you cannot conquer the church nor the bible. After you have lived and gone from this world the church and the bible will continue, you cannot stop God but he can stop you.

Unlike that man, you can cheat Satan by running to Jesus today in total repentance, Jesus
