

As you read this, what is your position? How prepared are you to meet with death if it comes knocking? You do not need to wait till that time, today is the day of salvation from sin, do not die in your lies, fornication, occultism, adultery, prostitution, lesbianism, homosexuality, drunkenness, illicit drug addiction, bribery and corruption and the life of sin in general.

Jesus said, come unto me, Matthew 28:11, in Matthew 4:17 he said repent. Jesus died on the cross as your substitute, if you repent and turn to God putting faith in Jesus, your sins will be forgiven you by God and your name will be written in the book of life. Go to God today and invite Jesus to come into your life and become your Lord and master.

AN OCCULT MASTER WHO BECAME CONFUSED
AS HIS LIFE DREW TO A CLOSE IN DEATH
(A True Life Story)

Death is a reminder to all men that we are all mortals. There are some who will not bother about life until they come face to face with the enemy called death. You see some of them, they tell you they are atheist that they do not believe in the existence of God, however when death comes knocking at them they begin to shiver and the reality of the God they denied his existence begin to dawn on them.

Whatever belief a man holds on to, try it at the point of death and you see those things falling apart like a pack of card. While strong, healthy and at no risk of imminent death you see men believe whatever they like but when the spirit of death stares them at their faces they become confused not knowing what shall become of their soul after they pass on from this life.

There was an occult man who rose to become a master in the occultic world, while around he heard the word of God and was told the need for him to receive Jesus but he denounced all that, at a point he was making mockery of hell that when he gets to hell he will burn and burn very well, he never believed all the bible and Jesus said about hell fire. He never believed all that Jesus said in Matthew 25:41, that some group of people will be cast into everlasting fire, a place of punishment prepared for the devil and his fallen angels.

A point came when that same occultic man knew it was his time to go, he saw death staring at him and at that point he became confused, all that he had heard about reincarnation of the soul going and coming all such belief could no longer hold before him at the face of death, with all his power and knowledge he began to doubt all that he believed in and in desperation he was asking if a man dies where does he go to? In his confusion death came calling and that night he told his wife, leave me let me die well, the wife held him shouting don't die but the man gave up and went into eternity without Christ Jesus. He died an occultic man, no salvation from sin.
