

come to repentance. Jesus said come unto me, Matthew 11:28A. Jesus said repent, Matthew 4:17. Do not wait till tomorrow when you have the door of God's mercy opened unto you. Do not shift your repentance till when it becomes too late. Do not be so preoccupied with the things of this life that you forget about the salvation of your soul from sin and from going to a place of everlasting punishment, Matthew 25:41. Mere religion and going to the church while living in sin cannot save you, invite Jesus into your heart and you shall be saved from God's wrath.

HE BOASTED NOT EVEN GOD CAN STOP HIM BUT SOMETHING TRAGIC HAPPENED
(A True Life Story)

Have you ever boasted in your life about one thing or the other? Have you seen men boasting about one thing or the other about themselves? Every day as you relate with people, you pride in one form or the other being exhibited by them, you see them talk highly of themselves thinking they are better than others. Boasters are usually full of themselves, they think so greatly about themselves.

The story we are about to look at is about one man called Tancredo Neves, he was a very influential and popular politician in Brazil. In the 1950s he contested for the presidency of his country – Brazil and in the cause of his campaign he made bold statement that if his party can give him 500,000 votes, not even God can stop him from ascending the presidency of Brazil. Truly he got the needed votes and in jubilation mood to be sworn in as the next president of Brazil. But something tragic happened. A day to his swearing in he died mysteriously, his votes could no longer count for him, they could not keep him alive. He never lived to become the president of his country Brazil, what a tragedy!!

You can see that man, he was so sure of tomorrow, he felt nothing could stop him at a particular threshold in his quest for the presidency of his country but he was mistaken, the God he boasted against is his creator who has the power to request for his soul anytime he so pleases and there is nothing he can do about it. The man died.

The bible made it clear your life is like a vapour that appear for a while and then vanishes away, James 4:13-14. Some people are so sure of tomorrow that when they hear of God's salvation today they boast and say there is still time and they can do whatever pleases them with their lives not minding how God feels. They are indirectly telling God, go to hell, I don't care about your salvation, I got my life to live, so leave me to live it the way I like and nothing even you God can stop me. That is a dangerous state of heart to be. Today is the day of your salvation from sin, God through Christ is calling you to
