

God who can explain why she never had mercy, her cup was full and her time of mercy was over, she died like King Herod in Acts 12, as a sinner.

The bible tells us, seek the Lord when he may be found, call upon him while he is near, let the wicked forsake his way and the unrighteous man his thought and let him return to the Lord for he will abundantly pardon him, Isaiah 55:6-7.

Friend, do not wait until it is too late, this is when to turn to God and invite Jesus into your life. Jesus said, repent, Matthew 4:17. The clock of God's mercy is ticking for you, do not wait until it stops and you come face to face with God's judgment, and repent today.

IT WAS TOO LATE FOR HER TO REPENT
(A True Life Story)

Have you ever heard people say, it is too late to cry when the head is off? Yes, the man whose head is cut off will never need to shed any physical tears. Have you heard of this saying, ignorance is no excuse in law? That is if you break the law and you feign ignorance, the law will not excuse you, you must pay the price. There are situations men get to in life and they are told it is too late, you see the doctor say if they had brought the patient in earlier, the calamity would have been averted by now, it is too late for there is nothing he can do to save the situation.

There was this old woman in a particular community in the western part of the country of Nigeria who was a terrible witch and could bewitch and damage the lives of others and make them either to die or useless in life. It is only God who can tell how many lives of people in that community or beyond that she had done havoc to.

There came a day that one servant of God, a great preacher went around her community or the area she lives to hold a crusade and she determined to not only disrupt the crusade through her diabolical power but also to kill the man of God. Suddenly the atmosphere of the crusade changed and there was heavy wind and rain with lightening and everything looked scattered but the man of God never was perturbed and never knew what was happening but he continued until he made the altar call, prayed for the sick and left to another city for the continuation of the crusade tour. Then there the old woman was, there was a commotion, she started shouting that someone was flogging her and certainly that must be an angel from heaven sent to execute judgment on her for her cup was full and then she confessed and pleaded to be taken to the crusade ground to see the man of God, but very unfortunately her time was up before God, they got to the crusade ground and were told the man of God had moved to another city and they decided to move her there while the flogging continued but before they could get to the next city hosting the next crusade, God closed the door of mercy against her, she was flogged by the angel to death, is only
